TECHNOLOGY OF PARTICIPATION (ToP)

Winning Through Participation L. Spencer $44

Foreword by Rosabeth Moss Kanter. Provides the philosophy and step-by-step description of the ICA facilitation methods used around the world. Includes detailed examples from companies.

The Workshop Book B. Stanfield $39

Practical and in-depth description of how to work effectively with groups. This book details the principles and steps of "workshopping", a powerful method for uncovering and connecting the insights and wisdom of a group. Shows how to make it work well for great results in a wide variety of situations.

The Art of Focused Conversation B. Stanfield $48

This "how-to" book presents more than one hundred examples of structured conversations from the workplace that you can easily use and adapt to your situation. It lays out principles and specific questions for effective work in six areas: Evaluating, Planning, Coaching, Interpreting Information, Decision-making, and Managing.

The Art of Focused Conversation in Schools $48

Demonstrates how the Focused Conversation Method can be used in a K-12 school setting. Each section deals with interactions between students, teachers, staff and parents and gives over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful and communication more effective. Gives curriculum examples.

The Courage to Lead Brian Stanfield $44

This book starts from the premise that we first need to transform ourselves in order to transform society. It presents twelve leadership stances, any one of which, if adopted, will change your life. The teachings of this book are grounded in fifty years of ICA's research and practical experience in over thirty countries.

JEAN HOUSTON

The Possible Human $35

This groundbreaking book includes theory and practices of self-development for individuals and groups, including work with the senses, body and brain, with time and space, music and poetry.

The Godseed $25

Revitalises the story of Christ by presenting the possibility of "being Christs". Exercises include using the creative arts, movement and dance, ceremony, drama and high play to explore the richness of your own life experience in the light of the Jesus/Christ story.

The Hero and the Goddess $25

Jean presents The Odyssey as a metaphor for the recreation of personal consciousness and the genesis of a new society. Stunning relevance for our time; includes many processes.

MONEY FOR HAPPINESS & SUSTAINABILITY

Your Money or Your Life $22

Joe Dominguez and Vicki Robin

Joe and Vicki offer a very practical, inspiring nine-step way to integrate financial independence with care for the planet; by discovering how much money you need (or don't need) to live a satisfying life. A long-term best seller.

Growth Fetish – Clive Hamilton $25

Our political and economic opinion makers have promised greater better lives for all through economic growth. But after years of sustained growth, we must confront the awful fact that we aren't any happier. This is the first serious attempt at a politics of change for rich countries dominated by the sicknesses of affluence, where the real yearning is not for more money but for authentic identity. The future lies in a new relationship with each other and the natural environment.

Affluenza – Clive Hamilton & Richard Denniss $25

Affluenza tracks the unsustainable addiction to economic growth that afflicts our nation--shown by how much Australians overwork, the growing mountains of stuff we throw out and the empty promise of 'choice'. Fortunately more and more Australians are deciding to ignore the advertisers, reduce their consumption, and recapture their time for what really matters to them.

Stress – John Merson $10

We often deal with chronic stress because we do not feel in control of our lives. Both depression and heart disease have been linked to chronic stress that can also have a tremendous impact on society as a whole. This book explains how we react to stress and how it can cause havoc in our lives.

The 7 Day Weekend – Ricardo Semler $15

The owner of Semco and author of Maverick! tells the astonishing and engaging story of a successful company's inspiring and insightful implementation of having the company run by those who work for it, where everyone works where, when and how is best for them.

OPEN SPACE – HARRISON OWEN

The Power of Spirit $40

Examines the world of Spirit/Consciousness in organisations and offers practical help to those who find themselves dreading another day in "business as usual". Provides ways of enabling the Open Space experience to become a 365 day reality.

VIDEOS

The Global Brain -Peter Russell $50

This inspiring video traces the development of the universe and the brain up until now. It shows how the future lies in learning to think together and act as a brain for the planet.
